

Cable Glanding & Installation Practices

1-Day

Course Number ATEC103-1

Course Overview

Designed to teach installation personnel about different types of cable glands for use in areas with potentially explosive atmospheres, along with installation techniques and practices. Includes hands-on assembly of a universal cable gland and a barrier-type cable gland.

Course Content

- Why we use cable glands
- Types and construction of cable glands
- How to select the right cable glands for the application
- Proper assembly techniques for different types of cable glands
- Cable gland accessories and when to use them
- Hands-on assembly practice and critique

Course Details

Location: ATEC Training & Certification, Houston, Texas
(can be conducted at client facility for groups of 6 or more)

Duration: 1 Days

Course Hours: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Min / Max Students: 4 / 25

Special Requirements: None

Certification: Certificate of Completion

To request more information or to register for this course, click HERE